Scripture Meditation of the Week

1 Thessalonians 2:19

For what [is] our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? [Is it] not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?

We have rebelled against God and deserve nothing short of eternal punishment; it is with amazement and gratitude the God has given us a way out of that forever hell and into His forever presence.

Satan knows his ultimate end. He knows what God has promised and knows that he cannot win. So his intent is to take as many of God's greatest creation with him. Knowing the truth of the matter, it should be our greatest intent to snatch those souls out of his grip. People march into hell every second of the day, lost forever, because they took their last breath denying the deity and sacrifice of the Lord, Jesus.

Those whom we bring to Jesus and disciple are a crown of victory for us. Ultimately it is the work of the Holy Spirit and the response of the individual, and yet God has given us the privilege—and even the obligation—to assist in the work.

Whether coming for or coming with, what great joy it brings knowing that God used us in bringing someone to a relationship with Jesus and an eternal home with Him.
